Management and Leadership courses that lead to success!

University

After completing your Advanced Diploma you have a direct pathway into the Charles Sturt University Bachelor of Business Studies or after five years of applicable work experience you can do the AGMC Graduate Certificate in Management.

You may also articulate to a Bachelor of Commerce, HR Management or Management at one of several universities. Macquarie University offer direct entry into their Bachelor of Business Administration if you pass your course with a credit or distinction average.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>This qualification provides leadership skills for a broad range of industry sectors and includes training in financial administration, marketing, project management and customer services. Employment options: administrative officer, project officer, marketing or sales assistant.</td>
<td>This qualification is for people who want to develop practical human resource skills as line managers, administrators or human resource operators. Skills development in areas such as human resource policy, recruitment, employee performance processes, dealing with workplace conflict and implementing industrial relations policy. Employment options: human resource officer, line manager, human resource clerk.</td>
<td>This program is for people who want pursue a career in project management or develop specialist project management skills. The program will develop practical skills and knowledge required to contribute to the design, implementation, management and closure of projects. Employment options: manager/supervisor, project manager.</td>
<td>This qualification will provide the knowledge and skills required to work in the import and export industry. The course will allow you to develop skills and knowledge in international business and international trade. Employment options: export customer service coordinator, exporter, importer and trade coordinator.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Diploma of Management

This course is for people who want to develop the knowledge and skills to work in management. Study electives from the areas of management, financial management, human resource management, customer service, franchising and workplace relations. Employment options: financial manager, human resources manager, administrative management.

Diploma of Human Resources Management

This qualification provides the skills and knowledge to work in human resources, as a manager, specialist, or supervisor with human resources management responsibilities. Employment options: supervisor of the HR management functions in an organisation.

Diploma of Project Management

This course is for people who want to pursue a career in project management. You will learn how to work as a project manager or as a project team leader. This course will help you develop the practical skills and knowledge required to design, implement, manage and close complex projects. Employment options: project supervisor, project sponsor, project manager.

Diploma of International Business

This course will allow you to develop skills and knowledge in International Business Management. Skills in global economics and business management will be developed in this program. Employment options: international consultant, trade manager, export manager.

Certificate IV in Human Resources

This qualification is for people who want to develop the knowledge and skills to work as a leader in strategic management across a range of organisations. Employment options: senior management roles.

Certificate IV in Project Management

This program is for people who want pursue a career in project management or develop specialist project management skills. The program will develop practical skills and knowledge required to contribute to the design, implementation, management and closure of projects. Employment options: manager/supervisor, project manager.

Certificate IV in International Trade

This qualification will provide the knowledge and skills required to work in the import and export industry. The course will allow you to develop skills and knowledge in international business and international trade. Employment options: export customer service coordinator, exporter, importer and trade coordinator.

Certificate IV in Retail Management

This qualification is for people who want to work in management roles in the retail and/or wholesale industries. Employment options: retail manager, operations manager, merchandising manager, retail buyer, sales manager.

Certificate IV in Occupational Health & Safety

This course will provide training to upgrade competence in Workplace, Health and Safety (WHS). On completion of this program, you will be able to identify workplace hazards, assess and control risk and manage consultation on WHS issues. Employment options: WorkCover trainers and assessors, safety officers or safety supervisors.

Plenty of options to choose from at each level.

www.nsi.edu.au • 131 674